SPIRITUAL LIFE & MINISTRY

ADMINISTRATIVE & ACADEMIC

Personal Nutrition Counseling: Have concerns about your current diet or eating habits? Want one-on-one support to reach your nutrition goals? Registered Dietitian, Rebekah Harter, is offering personal nutrition counseling for students and faculty this summer. Appointments are available Mondays and Thursdays from 2:30-5:30pm in the Student Health Center. Book an appointment through the counseling center today by emailing CounselingServices@houghton.edu or calling 585-567-9622.*

If you are a rising junior or senior and still need to fulfill your philosophy requirement, please know: during the transition between requirements, ANY Houghton philosophy course counts. If you are trying to fit in a course, and have some time this fall on Wednesday and Friday mornings, consider Pascal. This discussion-based, two-hour course will work through the Pensées (or Thoughts) of the French mathematician, philosopher and theologian Blaise Pascal. The Pensées is one of the richest and most psychologically probing explorations ever of faith, reason, and the human condition. The course isn't for everyone. Some will prefer to fulfill their requirement with the standard introductory course, 3M. But if you are up for something more topical and discussion oriented, and if you like the idea of completing the requirement in two hours instead of four, Pascal might be for you.*

Still have work study hours left? Looking for paid service opportunities? Use up those work study hours these last few weeks of the semester and Mayterm!

Many potential service opportunities available, including:

- Tutoring/Recreation at the Fillmore Powerhouse
- Tutoring at Fillmore Elementary during the day
- Tutoring at Belfast Elementary in the mornings or after school at 3:00pm
