

Olean Times Herald - 2/26/09

Houghton College Choir to perform

HOUGHTON – Details of the 2009 Houghton College Choir tours were announced and the first concert will be held Monday at John and Charles Wesley Chapel on the Houghton campus.

The College Choir has been selected to present a featured concert for the 2009 National Association for Music Education Eastern Division Conference.

The association's concert is a prelude to other events this touring season. In addition to performances within the United States, the Houghton College Choir will sing concerts in France, Spain and Italy this May.