SPIRITUAL LIFE & MINISTRY

Speaking in Chapel on Monday, March 9:

Chloe Howard - 19 year old sophomore at Westmont College, has written a couple books and given a couple TEDx talks. She rises out of past shame and guilt and shouts the truth she claims we all need to hear: only you have the power to determine what your labels are. Named "victim" after a 2014 assault and hate crime, Chloe learned what it means to be chased by a faithful and determined God and has allowed Him to call her "loved", "known", "free", and "resilient". Chloe challenges society's definition of beauty as she finds confidence in who Jesus says we are, and seeks freedom in knowing our stories are rewritten every day. Chloe challenges people around the world to proclaim the truth of STAND Beautiful and rise out of the ashes with her; join her in saying "we were made for more".

There will be the ability to purchase books and have your book signed after Chapel.

Welcome, College Students: Houghton Wesleyan Church is hosting a potluck especially geared for fellowship with college students on Sunday, March 15 at 12:15 p.m. Come and bring your friends. For more information, contact austenkewin@hwchurch.org or Laurie.Dashnau@houghton.edu We hope to see you there!

ADMINISTRATIVE & ACADEMIC

This Thursday, March 12, the 2019-20 Faculty Lecture Series continues with a talk by Professor of Business Management and Law, Joseph Miller. Prof. Miller's lecture is titled, "Seized: Weighing the Value of Illegal Narcotics in Time Served, Not Dollars and Cents"*

We enjoy sensational headlines when a big drug bust happens, but at what cost? Is it irresponsible to announce the seizure of illegal drugs in terms of its black-market value? Should the media and law enforcement announce illegal drug seizures in maximum years spent in prison, rather than announce it like a lotto jackpot for evading capture?

All are welcome to attend. All Faculty Lecture Series talks are held in Library 323 and begin at 4:25; as always, there will be time afterward for discussion.

Have an invention or solution that promotes “sustainability” rolling around in your head? Then pitch it for a chance to win cash prizes at the inaugural Startup Allegany Collegiate Competition on April 3, 4, and 5! This FREE, innovative, collaborative event invites students from all three Allegany County colleges (Houghton, Alfred, and Alfred State) and all disciplines to participate in an entrepreneurial pitch competition that seeks to develop creative solutions to real-world challenges; this year’s focus is on sustainability - meeting today’s needs without compromising tomorrow’s resources.

Come interact with students from other nearby colleges who have a passion for entrepreneurship, sustainability, and creativity. Also, our own President, Dr. Shirley Mullen will be a keynote speaker.

For more information contact MK Kellogg - mkelloqq@incworks.org 858-735-6871 or see Prof. Joseph Miller here on campus to learn more.

Library After Dark: Happily Ever After Join Michael and Alyssa at Library After Dark for the most magical story time around – full of laughter, rhyme, velveteen rabbits, make believe, vaguely controlled chaos, and even a certain fox in socks. Grab a blanket and your favorite stuffed animal and come along with us on a trip from “once upon a time” to “happily ever after”. Hot chocolate and tea will be provided. Our journey begins at 7:00pm on Tuesday, March 10th – hope to see you there!

Nielsen PE Center will re-open on Sunday, March 8th at 7:00 p.m.

Kerr-Pegula Field House remains closed until normal hours resume on Monday, March 9.

LOCAL/AREA EVENTS & INFORMATION

It's Not Too Late! Read February's selection in the "Votes for Women! 19th Amendment Book Club"

Angelica, NY – Angelica Community Radio's suffrage book club. Participants read books in advance then gather for a facilitated discussion led by Rusty Tobin of Belmont.

This program is free and open to the public. If you'd like to read the book in advance and join the discussion, call 585-466-5031 or email 19thbookclub@gmail.com

From the publisher: "In Seneca Falls and the Origins of the Woman's Rights Movement, Sally McMillen unpacks, for the first time, the full significance of the revolutionary convention that changed the course of women's history. The book covers 50 years of women's activism, from 1840 – 1890, focusing on four extraordinary figures –Lucretia Mott, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Lucy Stone, and Susan B. Anthony. McMillen tells the stories of their lives, how they came to take up the cause of women's rights, the astonishing advances they made during their lifetimes, and the lasting and transformative effects of the work they did."

The "Votes for Women! 19th Amendment Book Club" continues with the following titles:

- March 26: Elizabeth Cady Stanton: An American Life by Lori D. Ginzberg
- April 30: Women Will Vote: Winning Suffrage in New York State by Karen Pastorello and Susan Goodier
- May 28: A Woman's Crusade: Alice Paul and the Battle for the Ballot by Mary Walton

Anyone wishing to read and join the discussion of one or more these books can borrow a copy by calling 585-466-5031 or email: 19thbookclub@gmail.com . This program is made possible in part with funds from Humanities NY, with support from the National Endowment for the Humanities.
