

General Education Transfer Policy

Transfer credit will count toward a general education category if it satisfies the corresponding general education objectives. Below are common ways that these objectives are fulfilled.

Abstract and Quantitative Reasoning	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • College-level course in Calculus or computer programming. • AP score of 3 or higher in Calculus AB, Calculus BC, Computer Science A, or Computer Science Principles.
Natural Science	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • College-level natural science lab course. • AP score of 3 or higher in Biology, Chemistry, Environmental Science, or any Physics exam.
Natural Science, Faith & Society	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A lab science course that is also focused on a science discipline's approach to issues in contemporary society or how political, social, or religious contexts influence the practice of science.
Writing in the Liberal Arts	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • College-level course in writing/composition. • AP score of 3 or higher in English Language and Composition. • SAT verbal/EBRW score of at least 600; ACT English score of at least 26; or ACT Writing score of at least 9.
HUM 101	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • College-level course in ancient and medieval philosophy.
HUM 102	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • College-level course in Western literature. • AP score of 3 or higher in English Literature and Composition.
HUM 201	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • College-level course in world history or the history of western civilization. • AP score of 3 or higher in European History or World History: Modern.
Social Science	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • College-level course in social science. • AP score of 3 or higher in Psychology, Government & Politics, Macroeconomics, or Microeconomics.
Art and Music	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • College-level course in art or music. • AP score of 3 or higher in Art and Design, Art History, or Music Theory.
Wellness	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • College-level course in health/wellness.
Global Competence	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • College-level course in world language. • College-level course on global contemporary cultural issues. • AP score of 3 or higher in Language and Culture or Literature and Culture.

Other college level courses may grant major/minor/concentration credit; the final approval is made by the dean of the relevant area. Any transferrable college level course that does not meet a requirement will be used as general elective credit toward the total number of credits required to graduate.